

NYS POTATO GROWER DIRECTORY

Compiled by the Empire State Potato Growers Inc. Listing includes ESPG members who have voluntarily asked to be included. Not a complete listing of all growers in state. Updated Dec. 2015.

NYS Potato Grower Directory

New York Potato Industry

Agriculture is the largest industry in New York State. The Empire State Potato Growers Inc. is a nonprofit grower association representing approximately 150 commercial potato growers in New York State. NY growers grow about 20,500 acres of crop for seed, fresh and processing. New York's potato growers are 13th in the nation in potato production. The NY potato industry crop is valued at $62 million and production amounts to 5.7 million cwt.

Empire State Potato Growers Inc.

The Empire State Potato Growers Inc. is a nonprofit, grower organization providing information, legislative and research support, grower education and a unified voice for the betterment of New York's potato industry. This publication is put together by the Empire State Potato Growers Inc. on behalf of the growers who have voiced a desire to be on the list. It is by no means a complete list of all the growers in the state. For more information contact:

National Partners

The National Potato Council & United States Potato Board are two agricultural organizations that partner with the Empire State Potato Growers Inc. to represent New York state potato growers on a national level. The primary goals of the NPC are monitoring, at the national level, all legislative, environmental, trade and grower related issues.

The USBP's mission is to "increase demand for potatoes and potato products through an integrated promotional program, thereby providing US producers with expanding markets for their production."
